Jesus Christ is the True God And Eternal Life

But you, Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book until the time of the end; many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall increase.
Daniel 12:4

Go your way, Daniel, for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end. Many shall be purified, made white, and refined, but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand.

Daniel 12:9-10

THE FORMULA OF WATER BAPTISM

(Updated on 01 01 2024)

1- Introduction

In Matthew 28:18-20, the Lord and Master Jesus Christ gives instructions for Water Baptism to His Apostles in these terms: "¹⁸Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

Although the Lord's message as you have just read above is unambiguous, the agents of satan have succeeded, as they know how to do, in creating an amalgam around this subject, mischievously trying to prove that what you have just read would rather be a parable hiding a mystery that would not be revealed until later to Apostle Peter. They then argue that the Lord's command in Matthew 28:19 would in fact have a different meaning from the message given. This confusion, cleverly created and maintained by these agents of Hell has finally created what is nowadays called The Formula of Water Baptism; which in other words amounts to asking the question of knowing in what name the baptism of water should be done.

2- In what name to baptize?

The proliferation of satanic sects makes the work of the Lord very complicated. Things that should by no means be a problem, are today a problem because of the destructive work that agents of Hell are doing among the people of God. These serpents have polluted the teachings of Jesus Christ with their venom, to the point of setting very often many ignorant Children of God to confusion and doubt. This is what is happening with the case of water baptism, where the notion of "formula of baptism" has become a serious problem. Acts 20:29-30 says, "²⁹I know that after I leave, savage wolves will come in among you and will not spare the flock. ³⁰Even from your own number men will arise and distort the truth in order to draw away disciples after them." This is what we are currently experiencing.

Some impulsive demons in the flesh have sworn to succeed where their first colleagues had failed. They have taken upon themselves the charge of succeeding in destroying the truth, and proving with success that the word of God is false, and that God is only a vulgar liar. Blasphemy being the only true motive of these sons of the devil, they plunge themselves into it deeply. The serpents of this last generation are much more determined than those who were behind Jesus. They have sworn to deny John's baptism, and to prove that this baptism is not of God. To get there, they first created a doctrine which according to them God the Father and the Holy Spirit do not exist. And to fill up the gap left by the non-existence of God the Father and the Holy Spirit, they have fabricated a Jesus which according to them, would be at the same time, God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. In this regard, we invite you to read the teaching entitled "Is Jesus Christ God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit?" if you have not read it yet. You will find it on the website www.mcreveil.org.

This great manipulation of the occult world aims to help them prove and demonstrate that Jesus' command in Matthew 28:19 is no more than a blasphemy, because God the Father in reality does not exist, and the Holy Spirit in reality does not exist either. Once the ignorant fall into the trap of these sorcerers and believe that God the Father and the Holy Spirit do not exist, it is easier for them to accept that when Jesus was asking His apostles to baptize people in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit to make of them disciples, He was simply blaspheming, and even setting a trap for His apostles. Let us examine together the speech of demons.

3- Demons' speech

Beginning of the excerpt from the speech of demons: [For indeed the Bible says: Matthew 28:19 "Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." So here we see the command of the Lord (an instruction) to his apostles as he ascends into heaven. However, the Bible still states: Matthew 16:17-19 "Jesus replied, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by man, but by my Father in heaven. And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not overcome it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven." It comes out from this passage that Peter having received the revelation of who Christ is, had received the keys of the kingdom of heaven. When were these keys used? Acts 2:38 "Peter replied, repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." We see in this passage, on the one hand the use by Peter of the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and on the other hand, the obedience of the latter to the command of the Lord Jesus Christ with regard to baptism. For Peter did not just content with a mere recitation or repetition of the command of the Lord Jesus, having grasped that behind the name of the Lord Jesus Christ resides all the fullness of the Father the Son and Holy Spirit. This understanding of the word is in fact confirmed in the Lord's very command when he says: "... in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit". "In the name" being written in the singular and not in the plural. This subtlety in writing was not a mistake, but rather the indication of a common name for the same person; that is the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit: The Name of the Lord Jesus Christ.] End of the Extract from the speech of demons.

4- Examination of demons' reasoning

You have just read the reasoning of these agents of satan who think they can demonstrate that they know the Bible more than God, the author of the Bible. They believe they can explain to God what God does not understand, according to them. Now, beloved, let us examine together the stupidity of the reasoning of these deceivers. According to them, the Lord before asking His disciples to go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, was giving us an instruction that no one had to run the risk of putting into practice, lest they find themselves in Hell. Just a minimum of common sense allows you to understand that Jesus who, moved by His great love came to die to save us, cannot at the same time set us such an obvious trap. According to the doctrine of these demons, all those who are baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, will go to Hell, and all the servants of God who baptize people in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, will go to Hell.

Do you really need to be very intelligent to understand that this doctrine is purely satanic? How can the mere fact of putting a command of Jesus into practice be worth Hell to anyone who does it? How is it possible that obedience to Jesus becomes a door to Hell? Tell me how obeying Jesus and baptizing in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit would be a sin and a sin so great that all those who commit it will go to Hell? You who are a little bit spiritual should easily understand that if Jesus Christ our Saviour wanted to send us to Hell for nothing, He would never have chosen to come and die for us. It was driven by the desire to save us that Jesus came to suffer on earth, and to accept the most humiliating death. These demons are trying to prove to you that it is actually a comedy that Jesus played by giving the impression that He came to save us, while He came to lose us. Remember very clearly that if baptizing in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit were a sin, then Jesus would have set a trap for us, to have some pretext to send us to Hell.

According to these sorcerers, every baptism must be done in the name of Jesus, because Peter, having received a key containing secrets that Jesus Himself did not have, would be the only one to hold the mystery of baptism, a mystery that neither John the Baptist nor Jesus Christ had. Alleluia! These demons to prove to you that they do not understand anything from the word of God, take upon themselves to argue that Paul re-baptized the disciples in Acts 19 because the first baptism that these disciples had taken was John's baptism, which according to them is a false baptism, because it was not done in the name of Jesus. What an aberration! According to them, Paul had to annul the baptism of John in order to give these disciples the true baptism, the one in the name of Jesus.

Now, beloved, let me expose the idiocy of the doctrine of these demons. Let me show you that no agent of Hell will be able to destroy the word of God. Let's suppose they are right, and see how far their doctrines lead us:

5- Consequences of demons' reasoning

Peter would have, according to these demons' reasoning, received from Jesus the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and these keys would have opened the room in which was hidden the mystery of the formula of water baptism. If this were true, dear brethren, it would mean that until Peter had exploited his keys to gain access to the famous mystery concerning the formula of baptism, no baptism had been made with the right formula; it means that no baptism was good; therefore:

- 1- All the baptisms performed before Peter's discovery of the mysterious formula are invalid.
- 2- John the Baptist therefore wasted all his time, because none of the baptisms he did is valid.

3- John the Baptist would probably not be of God because his ministry would not be from God.

4- God who claims to have sent John the Baptist would be a liar, because He would not have sent him.

5- Jesus Christ who bears witness of John the Baptist would be a liar, and a deceiver, who cunningly encourages people to receive the baptism of John, which is supposedly a false baptism.

6- Jesus Christ would only be a comedian who himself receives in front of everyone the baptism of John supposedly a false baptism. And in doing so, He sets us a great trap, all of us who are called to follow His steps.

6- Examination of some biblical passages

John 3:22 tells us: "After this, Jesus and his disciples went out into the Judean countryside, where he spent some time with them, and baptized."

As you yourself can see, at that time Jesus had not yet given the keys to Peter. The famous mysterious formula of baptism was not yet discovered. Here is Jesus baptizing without the mysterious formula of these demons. Question: What will become of all these baptisms that Jesus did before Peter's discovery of the formula? Answer: According to the doctrine of these demons, Paul will re-baptize them all.

John 4:1-2 "¹The Pharisees heard that Jesus was gaining and baptizing more disciples than John, ²although in fact it was not Jesus who baptized, but his disciples."

As you yourself can see, at that time, Jesus had not yet given the keys to Peter. The famous mysterious formula of baptism was not yet discovered. These are the disciples, including Peter, baptizing without the mysterious formula of these demons. Question: What will become of all those baptisms that Peter and the other disciples made before Peter's discovery of the formula? Answer: According to the doctrine of these demons, Paul will do them all again.

Question: While waiting for Paul to meet all those disciples concerned to baptize them again, what will become of those who had the misfortune to die in the meantime? Answer: According to this satanic doctrine, they will all go to Hell, to confirm that Jesus has come to set them a trap to send them to Hell.

Matthew 3:13-15 "¹³Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by John. ¹⁴But John tried to deter him, saying, I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me? ¹⁵Jesus replied, let it be so now; it is proper for us to do this to fulfil all righteousness. Then John consented."

Here is Jesus who voluntarily goes to John to get a false baptism, since according to the doctrine of these demons, the baptism of John would be false. Question: How can Jesus Christ be so ignorant to the point of being baptized by someone whose baptism is false? Answer: He had not yet met Paul to teach Him the true baptism, according to the doctrine of these demons.

Question: Now that Jesus has been baptized with the baptism of John which is a false baptism, what will He do? Answer: According to the doctrine of these demons, the day that Paul will meet Him, Paul will teach Him the true baptism, and re-baptize Him. Alleluia!

Apostle Peter and all the other Apostles were all baptized before Peter's discovery of the mysterious formula of baptism. Question: What will become of the baptisms of Peter and the other Apostles? Answer: According to the doctrine of these demons, they will all go to see Paul to be baptized again.

7- Other consequences of demons' reasoning

According to demons, Paul would have re-baptized the disciples in Acts 19 because these disciples had been baptized with the baptism of John; confirming therefore according to these same demons, that the baptism of John is not of God; that's why Paul cancelled it. If this were true, in order to be saved, all those who were baptized with John's baptism would be forced to be re-baptized by Paul or someone else, with the only true baptismal formula discovered by Peter through his magic keys. Of those who were baptized with the baptism of John, there is Jesus Himself, Apostle Peter, all the other Apostles, there are thousands of disciples, men and women, whom John, Jesus, and the disciples baptized. Question: What will all those do? Answer: According to the doctrine of these demons, they will all be forced to be baptized again, either by Paul, or by someone who would believe like Paul, that the baptism of John is not of God.

From Matthew to Revelation, there is not a single verse that says that the Apostles were baptized again. If they have not been re-baptized, it implies that they all remained with the baptism of John, which according to demons, is a false baptism. Question: Where are all these Apostles now? Answer: In Hell of course. How can it be otherwise, since they have not been re-baptized using the true formula, according to the doctrine of these demons?

From Matthew to Revelation, there is not a single verse that says that the disciples who took John's baptism were baptized again. If they had not been baptized again, it means that they all remained with the baptism of John, which according to demons, is a false baptism. Question: Where are all these disciples now? Answer: In Hell of course. How can they enter Heaven with a false baptism according to these demons?

From Matthew to Revelation, there is not a single verse that says that Jesus was baptized again after His baptism by John. If He did not repeat His baptism, it means that He chose to rebel against God by approving the false baptism of John. Question: Where would Jesus be right now? Answer: According to the doctrine of demons, He would be in Hell, because no one can rebel against God and go to Heaven. You can now understand why these demons say that Jesus Christ is not at the right hand of the Father. It is because according to them, Jesus Christ is in Hell.

According to the doctrine of demons, all the disciples who were baptized by John had to repeat their baptism, in order to be saved, for those who were still alive when Peter discovered the mysterious formula. And for all those who had the misfortune to die before Peter exploited his keys, as well as those who refused to repeat their baptism, Hell is guaranteed.

According to the doctrine of demons, Jesus Christ is neither God, nor the Christ, nor the Master. He is just a simple ignoramus. He dared to baptize and let His disciples baptize thousands of people without the only true baptismal formula. In addition to that, He Himself accepted to be baptized with a baptism that is not of God.

Matthew 3:16-17 "¹⁶As soon as Jesus was baptized, he went up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and lighting on him. ¹⁷And a voice from heaven said, 'This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased.'"

Here is Jesus in the water taking a false baptism. During this time, the heavens open, and the Holy Spirit descends on Him like a dove to approve His false baptism, and God the Father speaks from heaven, and approves His beloved Son for taking a false baptism. Question: How can God the Father, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit all err in this way about John the Baptist? How could they all believe that John's baptism was a true baptism to the point of approving it, all of them? Answer: None of them had yet met Paul to teach them true baptism, according to the doctrine of these demons.

8- These demons contest the authority of God

The other demons who were behind Jesus already had this mission to turn people away from John's baptism, demonstrating that John's baptism was not of God. But fearing to be stoned by the crowd, they had not dared. They had preferred to say that they did not know where John's baptism came from. But since the demons of this generation are safe and know that they cannot be stoned, they freely took the liberty of demonstrating that John's baptism is not of God, a way of telling you that John was not of God. These demons therefore do not only attack God the Father, Jesus Christ the Son of the Father, and the Holy Spirit, they even attack John the Baptist. They dispute the whole Bible. It is actually the authority of God that they dispute.

Matthew 21:24-27 "²⁴Jesus replied, ... ²⁵John's baptism - where did it come from? Was it from heaven, or from men? They discussed it among themselves and said, if we say, from heaven, he will ask, then why didn't you believe him? ²⁶But if we say, 'From men' - we are afraid of the people, for they all hold that John was a prophet." ²⁷So they answered Jesus, we don't know..."

This question that the Lord Jesus addressed to these agents of satan in Matthew 21:25, reveals to you something very important. The Lord knew that one of the missions of demons was to destroy and totally annul John the Baptist's ministry. By asking them this question, the Lord proved to them that He knew their mission very well. And these demons were ashamed to know that the Lord mastered them. Jesus had them well cornered, and they were filled with confusion.

Know then beloved, that the ministry of these demons who maintain that baptism in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit is false, is not a new ministry. This mission had started since John began his ministry. Today's demons are simply finishing the mission that their colleagues had started in the time of John the Baptist and Jesus, but had failed. Today's demons are convinced that they will accomplish this mission. They tell themselves that Jesus is no longer physically on earth to shut their mouths. What they ignore is that even though Jesus is no longer physically on earth to shut their mouths, He has entrusted this task to His servants that we are. We will shut the mouths of these agents of Hell, and we will do so with as much success as the Master Himself.

These demons believe that the Lord made water baptism a mystery so great that a special key was needed to access it, and that famous key, Peter alone would have received it. Jesus would therefore, according to these demons, be giving Peter a key which Jesus Himself ignores the content. According to the interpretation of these snakes, Jesus Himself did not know the teaching about water baptism. If Jesus knew the teaching about water baptism, He would never have been baptized by John, since John's baptism according to them is not of God. Now that these demons are trying to show us that John the Baptist was not from God because his ministry was not from God, let's see what the Bible says about John the Baptist.

9- What the Bible says of John the Baptist

God says of John the Baptist that he is His messenger: Mark 1:2 "It is written in Isaiah the prophet: "I will send my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way."

Jesus says of John the Baptist that he is a prophet, and even more than a prophet: Matthew 11:7-9 "⁷As John's disciples were leaving, Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John: "What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed swayed by the wind? ⁸If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? No, those who wear fine clothes are in kings' palaces. ⁹Then what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet."

God announces that John the Baptist will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb: Luke 1:13-17 "¹³But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zacharias, for your prayer is heard; and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John. ¹⁴"And you will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth. ¹⁵"For he will be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink. He will also be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. ¹⁶"And he will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God. ¹⁷"He will also go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijah, 'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,' and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."

John the Baptist is the one whose mission was to preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins: Luke 3:2-3 "²While Annas and Caiaphas were high priests, the word of God came to John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness. ³And he went into all the region around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the remission of sins."

Jesus rebukes people for not having believed in John the Baptist: Matthew 21:32 "For John came to you to show you the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes did. And even after you saw this, you did not repent and believe him."

10- These demons demonstrate that the Bible is false

If it is therefore in the way of righteousness that John preached the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel, to call into question his baptism would be to deny the one who sent him, that is, God Himself. This is actually the hidden agenda of these demons. They have sworn to deny God. With what you have just read, do you think that if the Bible is true, the baptism of John can be so wrong that Paul finds himself re-baptizing those who took this baptism? Demons are therefore showing you that the Bible is false; for in order for John's baptism to be false, the Bible itself must be false. These demons claim that we should not baptize in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. They tell you that the Apostles and all the disciples baptized in the name of Jesus, and they quote you all the following passages:

Acts 2:38 "Peter replied, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit."

Acts 10:48 "And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then they asked him to stay a few days."

Small clarification concerning Acts 10:48. While in some versions of the Bible it is said that Peter ordered that these people be baptized in the name of the Lord, in other versions it is rather said that Peter ordered that these people be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. This in reality is not a problem, since for Apostle Peter who feared God, there was only one true Lord, Jesus Christ. This shows that Peter felt free at any time, to speak either of the Lord or of Jesus Christ, to say the same thing, or to designate the same person.

Acts 19:5 "On hearing this, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus."

Now that you have just re-read these passages, show me where the formula they used in the water is mentioned. Tell me, where do you see any Apostle or any disciple in the water saying any formula? Once the Apostles and the disciples are in the water, show me one place where the formula they used is mentioned.

I want to remind you that doing something in the name of Jesus is not a formula. All we do for the glory of God is in the name of Jesus that we do it. When we get closer to God, it is in the name of Jesus. When we do the work of God, it is in the name of Jesus. When we praise God, it is in the name of Jesus. All we do as Servants of God or as Children of God is in the name of Jesus that we do it. This does not make the name of Jesus any formula. Colossians 3:17 says: "And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him."

If the expressions used by the Apostles in Acts were formulas, we would end up with several formulas of baptisms, since several expressions were mentioned. Example: In Acts 2:38, Peter asked that people be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ, hence the first formula. In Acts 10:48, according to some versions, the same Peter ordered that people be baptized in the name of the Lord, thus the second formula. In Acts 19:5, Paul baptizes people in the name of the Lord Jesus, being the third formula. So, you end up with two or three formulas, depending on your version.

In any case, you end up with at least two formulas, whatever version of the Bible you are using. So what formula is true? Who finally got the real keys, in order for us to end up with several formulas? Even Peter who supposedly had received the keys revealing the only true formula, uses two different formulas in two different places. Wasn't Peter a confused man? Had he really received his famous mysterious formula through his keys? Why would he take the risk of changing the formula depending on where he is?

Demons may be tempted to tell you that in the name of Jesus Christ and in the name of the Lord, mean the same thing. It's wrong. For those who are of God and who fear God like Apostle Peter, these two expressions mean the same thing. But according to the reasoning of the agents of satan, it is not the same thing. Let me demonstrate it to you. If one wants to speak strictly in terms of formula, these different formulas are not all the same. In the name of Jesus Christ is different from in the name of the Lord, and is different from in the name of the Lord Jesus.

In the name of Jesus Christ, it is in the name of Jesus Christ, a Jesus Christ who may not be Lord, since there are many Jesus Christ. The agents of satan have in the world of darkness, their Jesus Christ, which is different from ours. In the name of the Lord Jesus, it is the Lord Jesus who is concerned here. In the name of the Lord, it can be any Lord, without necessarily being Jesus. If it is necessary to remain strictly on the notion of the formula, then these formulas are different, and that way, you will understand that the Apostles themselves used several formulas, and that Peter himself, although being the one who would have received the keys of the mysterious formula, would have violated the instructions and secrets of this mysterious revelation, and would have used several formulas.

And if these demons want to be right in arguing that in the name of Jesus Christ (Acts 2:38) is equal to in the name of the Lord (Acts 10:48), and equal to in the name of the Lord Jesus (Acts 19:5), they will be forced to admit that in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit (Matthew 28:19-20), in the name of Jesus Christ, in the name of the Lord, and in the name of the Lord Jesus, are exactly the same thing. This is what they say without realising it, when they say that Peter had "grasped that behind the name of the Lord Jesus Christ resides all the fullness of the Father of the Son and Holy Spirit". They are in this way affirming that the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit are the same thing. But since they have no intelligence, they believe to have found some differences.

11- Demons have a knack of twisting the word of God

Demons really have a knack for twisting the meaning of the word of God. See with what ease they present the opposite of what is written, the opposite of what you are reading, giving you the impression that the lie they are teaching you is what is written. Here is a real example of the manipulation with which satan deceives and misleads the world.

Let us examine this statement of demons: "We can perceive in this passage on the one hand, the use of the keys of the kingdom of heaven by Peter, and on the other hand, the obedience of the latter to the commandment of the Lord Jesus Christ as concerns baptism."

According to the doctrine of these demons, Peter flagrantly violated the Lord's instructions, and he clearly disobeyed Jesus. Because the instruction of Jesus to baptize in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit is clear enough; but according to the teaching of the demons, it is quite the opposite that Peter did. Yet these snakes are unafraid when they call this disobedience of Peter, obedience, to the point of telling you about "the obedience of the latter to the instruction of the Lord." Understand, then, that satan's agents teach only the opposite of the truth. Conclusion: If you want to know the truth, take every time the opposite of what the agents of satan tell you.

Listen again how these wicked cunningly try to set Peter against Jesus. Let's look at the following sentence: "For Peter did not just content with a mere recitation or repetition of the commandments of the Lord Jesus, having grasped that behind the name of the Lord Jesus Christ resides all the fullness of the Father the Son and Holy Spirit."

According to these snakes, Jesus was so foolish that He did not understand that it is out of place to subject adults to mere recitations or repetitions of the commandments, for what He has asked us to do would be according to demons, a mere recitation or repetition of the commandment.

12- Notion of mere repetition of the commandment according to demons

Let's talk a bit about this notion of mere recitation or repetition of the commandment. Peter's new formula, what is it? Beloved, let me show you that satan's agents have their understanding totally darkened, although they have the nerve to think they are intelligent. Here they are fighting the instruction on baptism left to us by the Lord, because this instruction would be a mere recitation or repetition of the commandment. If we abandon this simple recitation of Jesus because we want to correct His mistakes, and begin to baptize only in the name of Jesus Christ according to the "formula" of demons, what will be the difference?

Being in the water each time saying, "I baptize you in the name of Jesus Christ", would it not be a mere recitation? To speak in terms of mere recitation or repetition of the commandment, give me the difference between one who baptizes ten times by repeating "I baptize you in the name of Jesus Christ", and one who baptizes ten times by repeating "I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit". What is less recitation or less repetition between these two ways of doing? The idiocy of these demons is really great. Never forget that it is to us, Children of God, that God has given wisdom and understanding. Demons have none.

Peter, who knew that Jesus was a fool according to demons, understood that what Jesus said was not to be trusted. Then, knowing that Jesus was, according to these same demons, only an ignorant man who did not know what he was saying, Peter then corrected the ignorance of Jesus by replacing the instruction that Jesus had given, by another instruction.

I also want to remind you that Jesus' instruction to go and baptize in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit was not just for Peter. This instruction also applied to the other Apostles, to other disciples who were able to baptize, and even to us who are called today, to baptize. This means that, even if Peter were really a rebel like these demons want to present him, he might have changed Jesus' instructions at his level, but not at the level of everyone, since he has no right to do so. This means that if Peter were a rebel, he alone would be bound by his rebellion, and the change of formula would only concern him. This would not concern the other Apostles who were with him, nor us.

According to the blasphemy of these agents from Hell, Peter can take the liberty of rebelling against Jesus as he wants, to despise the instructions of Jesus as he wants, to change everything as he wants, on the pretext that he would have received the keys of the kingdom of God. And according to their interpretation, it is from the use of the keys by Peter in Acts 2:38 that people will begin to be saved, since it is only from Peter that people will take the true baptism, with the real formula. When I tell you that people who have sold their soul to satan are the most idiots on earth, you sometimes think that it is an insult. Examine this reasoning yourself. Do you understand what this implies? It simply means that no one entered Heaven before the mysterious discovery of Peter, and that no one will enter Heaven without Peter's permission. The Lord Jesus, who came to save us, would have wasted His time, because in spite of His sacrifice, everyone must go through the magic formula that Peter would have discovered through the use of the famous keys, to be saved. It's up to you to tell me if you believe that such a thing is possible. This is all the reasoning of those sons of the evil one who also believe they understand the word of God.

Let us note that the expression "formula" to be used for baptism is mentioned nowhere in the Bible. It is the sects of demons that teach the satanic doctrine according to which Jesus would be at the same time God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, that go astray while leading others astray, with the notion of water baptism formula. It is these same demons who invented these notions of "functions of god", "attributes of god", "unitary god", "triune god", terms empty of meaning, constructed just to cause confusion in the minds of the ignorant and the weak in spirit.

The Bible does not show any place where the disciples, being in the water, uttered some formula. When demons tell you that the disciples were baptizing only in the name of Jesus, ask them to show you a single place where a disciple in the water uttered this formula. Do no longer let demons deceive you. If you are still in one of those satanic sects that support the blasphemy that Jesus Christ is at the same time God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, get out of there quickly if you value your salvation. The Bible is clear and unambiguous, as we have just demonstrated. One does not need to go through weird interpretations to understand the Bible. It is a lot easier to understand than you think.

13- Acts 18:24-28 and Acts 19:1-7

Acts 18:24-28 ²⁴*Meanwhile a Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was a learned man, with a thorough knowledge of the Scriptures.*
²⁵He had been instructed in the way of the Lord, and he spoke with great fervour and taught about Jesus accurately, though he knew only the baptism of John. ²⁶He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they invited him to their home and explained to him the way of God more adequately. ²⁷When Apollos wanted to go to Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples there to welcome him. On arriving, he was a great help to those who by grace had believed. ²⁸For he vigorously refuted the Jews in public debate, proving from the Scriptures that Jesus was the Christ."

The Bible presents Apollos to us as an eloquent man and well versed in the Scriptures. The word of God specifies that Apollos knew only the baptism of John. Nowhere do you see the brothers of Ephesus asking him to repeat his baptism. On the contrary, they recommend him to the brothers of Achaia. And when he arrives in Achaia, the brothers who welcome him do not ask him to repeat his baptism. This example helps you to understand that the Apostle Paul did not question the baptism of the disciples of Acts 19 because their baptism was the baptism of John. The demons, whose mission is to twist the meaning of the word of God, claim that Paul re-baptized the disciples in Acts 19 because their baptism was from John, and that this baptism was done without the real formula. The Lord shuts their mouths with this example of Acts 18.

Let me now tell you the difference between Acts 18 and Acts 19, that is, between the case of Apollos and that of the disciples of Ephesus whom Paul met.

Apollos, although having known only the baptism of John, that is, although he had not yet known the baptism of the Holy Spirit, was a disciple well versed in the Scriptures. He knew and understood the word of God, to the point of speaking and teaching accurately the things concerning Jesus. On the other hand, the disciples of Ephesus whom Paul met, had also known only the baptism of John, that is, like Apollos, they had not yet known the baptism of the Holy Spirit. But unlike Apollos, they knew nothing of the word of God, to the point of not even knowing that there was a Holy Spirit. This degree of ignorance of these disciples proved that their baptism had not been done in good conditions. A true disciple of Jesus Christ, baptized in good conditions, cannot fail to know that the Holy Spirit exists. This little demonstration completely shuts the mouths of sorcerers, and definitively annuls their lie.

Acts 19:1-7 "While Apollos was at Corinth, Paul took the road through the interior and arrived at Ephesus. There he found some disciples ²and asked them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" They answered, "No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit." ³So Paul asked, "Then what baptism did you receive?" "John's baptism," they replied. ⁴Paul said, "John's baptism was a baptism of repentance. He told the people to believe in the one coming after him, that is, in Jesus." ⁵On hearing this, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. ⁶When Paul placed his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke in tongues and prophesied. ⁷There were about twelve men in all."

14- In my name

When Jesus wanted an act to be done in His Name, or any recommendation to be made in His name, He did not take detours to say it. The Lord never had a problem asking that something be done in His name. This is what the passages below tell you:

Matthew 18:5 "And whoever welcomes a little child like this in my name welcomes me."

Matthew 18:20 "For where two or three come together in my name, there am I with them."

Mark 9:37 "Whoever welcomes one of these little children in my name welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me does not welcome me but the one who sent me."

Mark 9:39 "Do not stop him," Jesus said. "No one who does a miracle in my name can in the next moment say anything bad about me."

Mark 9:41 "I tell you the truth, anyone who gives you a cup of water in my name because you belong to Christ will certainly not lose his reward."

Mark 16:17 "And these signs will accompany those who believe: In my name they will drive out demons; they will speak in new tongues."

Luke 9:48 "Then he said to them, "Whoever welcomes this little child in my name welcomes me; and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. For he who is least among you all - he is the greatest."

Luke 21:8 "He replied: "Watch out that you are not deceived. For many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am he,' and, 'The time is near.' Do not follow them."

John 14:13 "And I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Son may bring glory to the Father."

John 14:14 "You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it."

John 14:26 "But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you."

John 15:16 "You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit - fruit that will last. Then the Father will give you whatever you ask in my name."

John 16:23 "In that day you will no longer ask me anything. I tell you the truth, my Father will give you whatever you ask in my name."

John 16:24 "Until now you have not asked for anything in my name. Ask and you will receive, and your joy will be complete."

John 16:26 "In that day you will ask in my name. I am not saying that I will ask the Father on your behalf."

If the Lord could feel so comfortable asking His disciples to do this or that other thing in His name, why in the case of water baptism should he go through innuendo to give them instructions? What would Jesus lose by saying to His disciples: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in my name, ²⁰and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age." Why would He be afraid or ashamed to ask His disciples to baptize in His name? Would He suddenly have been afraid that His Father would accuse Him of giving Himself too much airs? You therefore understand, beloved, that it does not take great knowledge to confound the very great manipulation of the agents of Hell.

15- Other edifying passages

Acts 1:1-22 ¹In my former book, Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus began to do and to teach ²until the day he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles he had chosen. ³After his suffering, he showed himself to these men and gave many convincing proofs that he was alive. He appeared to them over a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God. ⁴On one occasion, while he was eating with them, he gave them this command: "Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift my Father promised, which you have heard me speak about. For John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit." ⁶So when they met together, they asked him, "Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?" ⁷He said to them: "It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by his own authority. ⁸But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth." ⁹After he said this, he was taken up before their very eyes, and a cloud hid him from their sight. ¹⁰They were looking intently up into the sky as he was going, when suddenly two men dressed in white stood beside them. ¹¹"Men of Galilee," they said, "why do you stand here looking into the sky? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come back in the same way you have seen him go into heaven." ¹²Then they returned to Jerusalem from the hill called the Mount of Olives, a Sabbath day's walk from the city. ¹³When they arrived, they went upstairs to the room where they were staying. Those present were Peter, John, James and Andrew; Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew; James son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. ¹⁴They all joined together constantly in prayer, along with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers. ¹⁵In those days Peter stood up among the believers (a group numbering about a hundred and twenty) ¹⁶and said, "Brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled which the Holy Spirit spoke long ago through the mouth of David concerning Judas, who served as guide for those who arrested Jesus - ¹⁷he was one of our number and shared in this ministry." ¹⁸(With the reward he got for his wickedness, Judas bought a field; there he fell headlong, his body burst open and all his intestines spilled out. ¹⁹Everyone in Jerusalem heard about this, so they called that field in their language Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.) ²⁰"For," said Peter, "it is written in the book of Psalms, 'May his place be deserted; let there be no one to dwell in it,' and, 'May another take his place of leadership.'" ²¹Therefore it is necessary to choose one of the men who have been with us the whole time the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, ²²beginning from John's baptism to the time when Jesus was taken up from us. For one of these must become a witness with us of his resurrection."

This passage alone silences the controversy around what should be called "The Formula of Water Baptism". Verse 5 confirms that there are only two types of Baptisms: The baptism of water and the baptism of the Holy Spirit, and that there are only two authors of baptisms: John as the author of baptism of water, and Jesus as the author of the baptism of the Holy Spirit, God the Father being the Author of everything, of course. When we understand that John is the sole author of water baptism, it becomes easier for us to understand why water baptism is still called baptism of John.

In verse 5 Jesus says: For John baptized with water, ... thus recognizing the baptism of John as the only valid baptism. In verse 22 Peter says: Beginning from John's baptism... also recognizing as the only valid baptism, the baptism of John. The Lord recognizes that it was John who instituted the baptism of water, and His apostle Peter, whom the demons accuse of having received a key revealing to him the so-called true formula, recognizes the baptism of John as being the only true baptism. However, John did not wait for the famous formula of Peter to begin the baptism of water.

John 1:33 "I would not have known him, except that the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and remain is he who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.'"

This passage shows us that God the Father recognizes only two baptisms, water baptism, and the baptism of the Holy Spirit. And God the Father designated only two authors of these two baptisms: John as the author of the baptism of water, and Jesus as the author of the baptism of the Holy Spirit.

Luke 7:29-30 ²⁹*And when all the people heard Him, even the tax collectors justified God, having been baptized with the baptism of John.* ³⁰*But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the purpose of God for themselves, not having been baptized by him."

According to Jesus, it is those who refuse the baptism of John who will go to Hell, for having rejected the purpose of God for themselves. But according to the agents of Hell, it is those who are baptized with the baptism of John, who will go to Hell, for having accepted a baptism not done according to a formula which did not exist in the time of John, and which would have been discovered by Peter long after John the Baptist, and after Jesus. It is up to you to indicate which of Jesus Christ and the agents of satan is right. If you believe that Jesus Christ is right, quickly repent and get out of all the sects of demons who say that baptism in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit is wrong. And if you believe that it is the sons of the devil who are right, stay in their sects, and continue your blasphemy.

Acts 13:24 "Before the coming of Jesus, John preached repentance and baptism to all the people of Israel."

We have just read that before the coming of Jesus, John had preached the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. If John's baptism is therefore false, this would mean that what the Bible calls here baptism of repentance is rather the baptism of condemnation. According to the agents of satan, it was rather a false baptism, a baptism of condemnation and death, that John had preached to all the people of Israel before the coming of Jesus. John the Baptist sent by God the Father to prepare the Way of the Saviour of the world would therefore have had the mission to lead all the people of Israel to Hell before the coming of Jesus, according to the doctrine of demons. Don't let this surprise you. Demons are on a mission to fight God, and blasphemy is one of their weapons.

John 1:19-36 ¹⁹Now this was John's testimony when the Jews of Jerusalem sent priests and Levites to ask him who he was. ²⁰He did not fail to confess, but confessed freely, "I am not the Christ." ²¹They asked him, "Then who are you? Are you Elijah?" He said, "I am not." "Are you the Prophet?" He answered, "No." ²²Finally they said, "Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?" ²³John replied in the words of Isaiah the prophet, "I am the voice of one calling in the desert, 'Make straight the way for the Lord.'" ²⁴Now some Pharisees who had been sent ²⁵questioned him, "Why then do you baptize if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?" ²⁶"I baptize with water," John replied, "but among you stands one you do not know. ²⁷He is the one who comes after me, the thongs of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie." ²⁸This all happened at Bethany on the other side of the Jordan, where John was baptizing. ²⁹The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!" ³⁰This is the one I meant when I said, 'A man who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me.' ³¹I myself did not know him, but the reason I came baptizing with water was that he might be revealed to Israel." ³²Then John gave this testimony: "I saw the Spirit come down from heaven as a dove and remain on him. ³³I would not have known him, except that the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and remain is he who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.'" ³⁴I have seen and I testify that this is the Son of God." ³⁵The next day John was there again with two of his disciples. ³⁶When he saw Jesus passing by, he said, "Look, the Lamb of God!"

Upon meditation of this passage, it is clear that to baptize, John did not use the "formula" "In the name of Jesus" or "In the name of the Lord Jesus" or "In the name of Jesus Christ", since at the beginning of John's ministry, Jesus was not yet revealed to the people as Christ. Before knowing Jesus as the Christ, John was already baptizing. Acts 13:24, which we read earlier, confirms this. Even if the Holy Spirit in John could help him to recognize Christ, and this is what happened, as described in John 1:29, John himself tells us in verses 31 and 33 that he did not yet know Jesus as the Christ. Even though he knew that Christ was already present among the people, he himself did not yet know who among the people was Christ. In addition to the Holy Spirit who helped him to identify Christ, God the Father had also given him the sign revealed in verse 33. We therefore understand that it was from this moment that John knew who among the people was Christ, that is, from the baptism of Jesus. Yet before the baptism of Jesus, John had already baptized many people, as the passage of Luke 3:21 also shows: "When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too. ..." and chapter 3 of Matthew.

It is clear that John, having not yet identified Christ, could not use His name in any baptism formula. John therefore baptized without the famous formula "In the name of Jesus Christ". If God the Father who sent John to baptize validated this baptism, therefore the doctrine of demons (who refuses any baptism that is not made with a so-called formula that Apostle Peter would have discovered long after the death of John the Baptist), is unfounded, as we have already demonstrated.

John 8:14-18 ¹⁴Jesus answered, "Even if I testify on my own behalf, my testimony is valid, for I know where I came from and where I am going. But you have no idea where I come from or where I am going. ¹⁵You judge by human standards; I pass judgment on no one. ¹⁶But if I do judge, my decisions are right, because I am not alone. I stand with the Father, who sent me. ¹⁷In your own Law it is written that the testimony of two men is valid. ¹⁸I am one who testifies for myself; my other witness is the Father, who sent me."

You will probably wonder why I quote this passage of John 8:14-18 in this teaching dealing with The Formula of Water Baptism. Let me give you the reason. The demons who maintain that baptism in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit is false, are the same who maintain that God the Father does not exist, and that the Holy Spirit does not exist. These are the same demons who say that Jesus Christ has no Father, and is His own Father. It is therefore from this diabolical doctrine, which denies God the Father and the Holy Spirit that this blasphemy concerning the baptism of John arises. These two satanic doctrines are therefore linked.

Thus, if one of these two teachings is false, the second is automatically false. In this passage of John 8:14-18, the Lord confirms the Scriptures, saying that the testimony of two men is true. And He goes on to say that His testimony and that of His Father constitute the testimony of two men. Jesus Christ the Son of God says here incontestably that His Father and He are two separate persons. At this level alone, it is clearly established that Jesus Christ is not God the Father, and that Jesus Christ is different from God the Father. This demonstrates to those who still doubted it, that Jesus Christ is neither God the Father, nor the Holy Spirit; He is indeed the Son of God. This passage alone is enough to permanently stop the mouths of all the demons who support this satanic doctrine. If therefore the doctrine of demons which says that Jesus Christ is Himself God the Father and the Holy Spirit is false, therefore even their doctrine contesting baptism in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit is also false.

16- Revelation

Another element behind which these sorcerers try to hide when they are trapped is the passage of Matthew 11:27 that says: "All things have been committed to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him." These wicked people try to impress the naive by telling them that Apostle Peter was the only one who knew the secret concerning the formula of water baptism, because it was something hidden, that the Son had chosen to reveal to him. Beloveds, even if it were really necessary to speak of revelation, it would be impossible for Apostle Peter to receive a revelation concerning the ministry of John the Baptist, which John the Baptist himself did not know. I hope that from this moment, no one will fall into the trap of these sons of the devil.

17- Sorcerers believe they are smarter than Jesus

You have other little demons who tell you to baptize only in the name of Jesus Christ, because all the Apostles would have baptized in this name. Ask these snakes to show you one place in the Bible where you hear an Apostle or any other disciple, say a formula while in the water. Ask them to give you the name of a single Apostle or other disciple who while in the waters of baptism baptizing, said, "I baptize you in the name of Jesus or in the name of Jesus Christ, or in the name of the Lord Jesus". Let them give you the name of the disciple who used this formula, and let them give you the Bible verse that talks about it. If these snakes give you such a verse, feel free to follow them, and write to us so that we would repent.

Other snakes tell you that the "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit", is a purely catholic and satanic trinity. They are there telling you that Jesus Christ, who asked His disciples to baptize in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, is a catholic and a satanic. When these snakes are confounded with the verse of Matthew 28:19, some say that the verse says "In the name" in the singular, and others say that "Father, Son and Holy Spirit" are not proper names. A way of telling you that they are smarter than Jesus. For these good-for-nothings, Jesus knew nothing about the syntax, Jesus' level of grammar was very low.

Still other demons speak to you either of the functions of God or of the attributes of God. Those who speak about functions say that God is unique and changes depending on what he wants to do. And they explain that "God the Father" is a function, "God the Son" is another function and "God the Holy Spirit" is yet another function, and all this represents one and the same person who metamorphoses according to the circumstances.

Those who speak about attributes say that "the only Everlasting God manifests his various attributes depending on the task he is performing. God is the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit because God became our Father through the man Jesus Christ our Lord who dwells in us by his Holy Spirit, which is simply Jesus Christ Spirit." This is the abomination that these sons of the evil one support, thereby making God a liar, and declaring the Bible false.

Do no longer allow these demons to distract you with what they call "functions" or "attributes". Ask them just one verse. If you do not want these demons to waste your time with their reasoning that will irritate and revolt you by their very baseness, simply ask them to give you the name of a single Apostle or any other disciple, who while in the waters of baptism baptizing, uttered the formula "I baptize you in the name of Jesus or in the name of Jesus Christ, or in the name of the Lord Jesus", and give you the Bible verse that says this.

18- A Question of common sense

If there were a formula for water baptism without which no baptism would be valid, this formula would naturally be used at the institution of baptism, and this formula would be revealed to the initiator of water baptism, who is John the Baptist. This is a matter of common sense. John the Baptist, whose ministry was water baptism, could not finish his ministry until he died, without the formula of this ministry, so that this so-called formula of his ministry would rather be revealed to those who were only to continue his ministry. If the idea of this famous revelation that Peter would have had were true, John's entire ministry would have been useless, since he would have worked from the beginning to the end, without the revelation of what was the very essence of his ministry. Do you think such a thing is possible?

Remember that John was filled with the Holy Spirit from his mother's womb. Do you think that the Lord could send His servant John, fill him with the Holy Spirit from his mother's womb, entrust him with an important mission such as preparing the way of Christ the Saviour of mankind, but hide the very secret of this mission? There are only demons to blaspheme in this way, and there are, fortunately, only other demons, to believe in such madness. Every true child of God is inhabited by the Holy Spirit, and as such, enjoys a minimum of discernment, which helps him to use common sense whenever necessary.

The ministry of Water Baptism was neither the ministry of Jesus, nor that of the Apostles of Jesus. It was the ministry of John the Baptist. This is why all the people, including Jesus and His Apostles, were baptized by John. And none of them can question John's ministry, which they all recognized to be true. Do not let yourself be distracted by these demons who try to turn you away from the word of God. These snakes are agents of Hell, on a mission to deceive and get the maximum of people away from the way of God, as their master lucifer had done with Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. If you follow them, you will burn with them in Hell.

19- Testimony

I found myself one day in seminar with the church elders, that is to say, these men who usually carry titles of Apostles, Prophets, Doctors, Pastors and Evangelists. These servants of God belonged for the most part to these satanic sects, which maintain that Jesus Christ is at the same time God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. While I was teaching them about Water Baptism, I touched on this point regarding the formula for water baptism. And among other biblical passages that I read to help them understand the teaching, there was this passage from Matthew 28:18-20 which says: "¹⁸Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

As soon as I finished reading this passage, one of the participants, a so-called evangelist, declared in full assembly, in a loud and intelligible voice, that he was allergic to this verse 19 of Matthew 28 that I had just read, and that this verse made him sick. I had just there, beloved, unknowingly caused the nausea of an alleged servant of God, moreover, a great evangelist, just by reading a biblical verse. You can imagine my embarrassment in front of this spectacle. I had to find myself doing what I often avoid doing, that is, exposing the demons in front of everyone. This demon had just exposed himself, and I could no longer cover him. I was forced to interrupt the teaching on water baptism that I was giving them, to give them first a piece of the teaching on Discernment, which was intended rather for the next days.

I told this great evangelist before the whole assembly that he was a demon. And while his other colleagues seemed surprised, and there were so many of them, I asked them to be calm and patient, and to listen to the teaching I had to give them. I told them that if after the teaching that I had to give them it turned out that the judgment I had just issued vis-à-vis their colleague was wrong, I had to repent and end the seminar. All were still very surprised. They were already very calm from the start, very polite and very responsible.

So, I took the time to explain to them that I considered them brothers and friends, and that I didn't think I was anything better than them. I made them understand that I pay attention to my language when I am before the people of God, and that I never consider myself to be what I am not. I told them that I always have great respect for the servants of God, even when they are in total ignorance, as was their case, and that for this, I would never take the risk of calling a servant of God a demon, just out of contempt, or to insult him. All of them had become even more calm and attentive.

I gave them a piece of the teaching concerning Discernment, by promising them that this teaching in its entirety was on the program for the rest of our seminar. I demonstrated to them by the word of God, that no true child of God can have nausea, at the simple reading of a biblical verse. I took the time to go into all the details that should allow them to fully understand the teaching. Within hours, we went through the entire Bible. When I finished teaching, they were all frozen. I then revealed to them that in the midst of God's people there are more demons than God's children; I also demonstrated to them that a very large number of those who are wrongly called servants of God are not even of God at all. Following the explanations that I had just given them through the Bible, everyone understood, and impatiently awaited the day planned for the teaching on Discernment.

I have made the effort to summarize this testimony as much as possible, so as not to make this teaching too long. This is beloved, a little story that shows you to what extent the agents of satan whom you consider by ignorance to be children of God or servants of God, feel uncomfortable in the truth. The most zealous feel outright disgust for the truth, and feel nauseous. Like this demon whose testimony I have just given you, the agents of satan are allergic to the truth. This is why they are very zealous in preaching lies and in supporting false doctrine. This aspect is well explained in the teaching on "Discernment", which you will find on the website www.mcreveil.org.

20- Warnings

To avoid making this teaching unnecessarily long, I will not develop here all the warnings, which have already been given in other teachings, to which I will refer you. What you need to remember is that when you simply stay on what is written in black and white in the word of God, you very easily shut the mouth of all agents of satan. Because to succeed in turning you away from the way of God, these snakes are always obliged to go out of God's word.

Do not hesitate to read the teaching entitled "Is Jesus Christ God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit?" that I have recommended to you above. Also, read the prerequisites that I have recommended to the Children of God to observe whenever they have to engage in any Bible study, or any discussion or debate around the Bible with the agents of satan. You will find this short text on mcreveil.org website. It is entitled "Prerequisites to Bible Studies".

Beloved, this study that we have just carried out gives you another opportunity to identify some other demons that hide in the midst of God's people. Let me give you here another element of discernment that will help you recognize a few demons among God's Children. But before exercising this discernment, you must show great flexibility and extreme tolerance in judgment, as we usually do.

For this, although it is well established that any true child of God finds it easy to understand the things of God, although it is well established that no true child of God can blaspheme in such a way by forcefully arguing that the Bible is false, suppose nevertheless that all these religious people who support this satanic doctrine, are either in ignorance or simply possessed. Give them this teaching, which is well elaborated and clear enough to open their eyes.

Those among them who were rather in ignorance will be made free by the truth exposed in this teaching. And those who were simply possessed will also be made free by the truth clearly established in this teaching, because as you well know, the truth sets free. John 8:32. But those who, after having read all the demonstration made in this teaching, will choose not to repent, and will prefer to cling to their blasphemy, will then give you proof that they are demons. In other words, know that any so-called Christian, who after reading this teaching continues to maintain that John's baptism is false, is a demon. Do not forget that demons will never repent lest they should be saved. "... The Spirit expressly says that in latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to deceiving spirits and doctrines of demons." 1Timothy 4:1.

I appeal here to repentance to all those who are still in this satanic doctrine. All of you who spread this doctrine of demons, and you who believe in this blasphemy, grasp this outstretched hand of the Lord, and repent. Abandon this satanic doctrine, and flee the path of Hell while there is still time. Get out of all these satanic sects that blaspheme against God. If you choose to leave these satanic clubs and decide to walk in the sound doctrine of Christ, feel free to contact us.

21- Conclusion

By this conclusion, we will show you that we did not even need all the analysis that we have just done, to dismantle the doctrine of demons, and to shut forever the mouth of these agents of Hell who blaspheme by saying that the Baptism of John is a false Baptism. Let us examine the following passages of Matthew 3:11 and Acts 1:5:

Matthew 3:11 "I baptize you with water for repentance. But after me will come one who is more powerful than I, whose sandals I am not fit to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire."

Acts 1:5 "For John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit."

John the Baptist presents himself in Matthew 3:11 as the one whose mission is Water Baptism, and presents Jesus Christ as the one who has the power to baptize with the Holy Spirit. It therefore follows from this that there are only two types of Baptisms, namely the Baptism of Water with John the Baptist as its author, and the Baptism of the Holy Spirit, with Jesus Christ as its author.

Jesus Christ presents himself in Acts 1:5 as the one who has the power to baptize with the Holy Spirit, and presents John the Baptist as the one sent to baptize with water. It also follows from this that there are only two types of Baptisms, namely the Baptism of Water with John the Baptist as its author, and the Baptism of the Holy Spirit, with Jesus Christ as its author.

John the Baptist during his ministry baptized thousands of people, including Jesus and His Apostles. According to the teaching of demons, it was after the death of John the Baptist, and the departure of Jesus Christ, that the true formula of baptism was discovered by Peter. These agents of Hell therefore tell you that any baptism done in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit would be false, and would lead to Hell all those who baptize with this "formula", and all those who are baptized with this "formula". They are telling you that John's baptism is wrong, and that John was not sent by God. These thousands of people that John baptized, including the Lord Jesus Christ, Apostle Peter, and the other Apostles, will all go to Hell. And only those who were baptized according to the formula supposedly discovered after the departure of John the Baptist and Jesus Christ would be saved.

According to the doctrine of demons, Apostle Peter himself, who would have received the keys revealing to him the mystery of the one and only true formula of water baptism that saves, is in Hell. Why is Apostle Peter also in Hell, when it is to him that the mystery of the only formula that saves was revealed? This is because Peter used the true formula to baptize the other disciples, but forgot to be re-baptized with this same new formula. And as any baptism done without the one true formula rather leads to Hell, Apostle Peter who remained with his baptism of John done without the right formula, is in Hell. Alleluia! This helps you to understand, beloveds, that the idiocy of the agents of satan is very great. The agents of Hell are big idiots.

Finally, remember once and for all that Apostle Peter never discovered any formula for baptism, that he never questioned the baptism of John, and that he himself was not re-baptized for having been baptized by John without the formula of demons. The theory of any baptism, which should be done only in the name of Jesus, is a purely satanic doctrine, coming straight from the abyss. If after all the demonstration we have just given, you continue to believe that the doctrine of demons is true, you will have no more excuses.

Grace to all who love our Lord Jesus Christ with an undying love!

Invitation

Dear brothers and sisters,

If you have run away from fake churches and would like to know what to do, here are the two options available to you:

1- See if around you there are some other children of God who fear God and desire to live according to the Sound Doctrine. If you find any, feel free to join them.

2- If you do not find one and wish to join us, our doors are open to you. The only thing we will ask you to do is to first read all the Teachings that the Lord has given us, and which are on our website www.mcreveil.org, to reassure yourself that they are in conformity with the Bible. If you find them in accordance with the Bible, and are ready to submit to Jesus Christ, and live by the demands of His word, we will gladly welcome you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you!
