Jesus Christ is the True God And Eternal Life

But you, Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book until the time of the end; many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall increase.
Daniel 12:4

Go your way, Daniel, for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end. Many shall be purified, made white, and refined, but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand.

Daniel 12:9-10

Before you begin reading this Teaching,
Take a few minutes and meditate on the following question:

Where will you spend your Eternity?

In Heaven?

Or

In Hell?

Hell is Real, and it is Eternal.
Think about it!

THE FIRE OF GOD

(Updated on 01 01 2024)

1- Introduction

It is almost impossible to talk about Spiritual Warfare, without mentioning the Fire of God. The Fire of God, which has become the favourite weapon of the true Soldiers of Christ, is also a very dreaded weapon of satan and his agents. This weapon is all the more dreaded that it is attacked by some zealous agents of satan, who use cunning to bring the Children of God to stop using it. As the arguments these sorcerers use to lead the Children of God astray are drawn from the Bible, it is important that we do not fold our arms and let these agents of Hell continue to confuse the Soldiers of Christ, and thus break the momentum of the Spiritual Warfare of the servants of Christ.

I found it necessary to treat this subject, on the one hand, to reassure these ignorant Children of God who were already falling into the trap of believing in the venom of the agents of Hell who, by their wiles, give the impression that we must take care not to harm demons and agents of satan, and that it would be a sin to strike demons and agents of satan with the fire of God. The fact that these sorcerers use a passage from the Bible to support their lies causes the ignorant Christians to succumb.

I have chosen to develop this teaching on the Fire of God, on the other hand, to close, once and for all, the mouth to these agents of satan who make every effort to lead the Children of God astray from Spiritual Warfare, by trying to demonstrate that the use of God's Fire in Spiritual Warfare is not biblical. These snakes, in their seduction, tell you that Jesus did not ask to send the Fire of God on demons. Since they know very well how to twist some Bible verses to justify their incantations, they quote the passage of Luke 9:51-56.

2- What does Luke 9:51-56 say?

"⁵¹Now it came to pass, when the time had come for Him to be received up, that He steadfastly set His face to go to Jerusalem, ⁵²and sent messengers before His face. And as they went, they entered a village of the Samaritans, to prepare for Him. ⁵³But they did not receive Him, because His face was set for the journey to Jerusalem. ⁵⁴And when His disciples James and John saw this, they said, "Lord, do You want us to command fire to come down from Heaven and consume them, just as Elijah did?" ⁵⁵But He turned and rebuked them, and said, "You do not know what manner of spirit you are of. ⁵⁶"For the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives but to save them. ..."

Let me begin this teaching by giving you an element of discernment. Know that all those so-called Christians or pastors who try to turn you away from Spiritual Warfare by telling you that sending the Fire of God on demons is not biblical, are demons. They are demons who try to intimidate you, so that you give up the warfare. It is actually to protect themselves from the Fire of God that you send each time to their camp in the name of Jesus, that they intimidate you in this way. The fire that you send to their camp consumes them, and since they cannot tell you openly, they instead use cunning to discourage you.

Now let me go back to the teaching with you. Let us start with this passage of Luke 9:51-56 that sorcerers like to quote. When you take a few minutes to examine this passage, you realize that it is only the children of God who do not meditate well on their Bible who get distracted by these sorcerers. This passage is very clear, and presents no difficulty of understanding. I will explain to you how you must each time meditate on the word of God, to understand it well. You must know how to formulate essential questions, the answers of which will help you understand the subject you want to study.

3- Essential Questions

To give you an example, I will do this exercise with you. We will begin by identifying the essential questions that will help us understand the topic at hand. These questions are as follows:

- 1- Who did the disciples James and John want to consume by the Fire of Heaven?
- 2- What prompted the disciples to want to command the Fire of Heaven to consume these Samaritans?
- 3- Why did they think of invoking the Fire of God against those they believed to be enemies of God?
- 4- Why did Jesus, in this case, oppose the use of this weapon by the disciples?

The answers to these questions will help us understand this teaching. Let us now answer these questions:

3.1- Who did the disciples James and John want to consume by the Fire of Heaven?

These people that the disciples wanted to consume by the fire of Heaven were Samaritans, simple men who did not even know Jesus yet. The Lord told the disciples that He came, not to destroy men's lives but to save them. They were indeed men the Lord intended to save. They were therefore not agents of satan or demons who fight us day and night, and who cannot be saved.

3.2- Why did the disciples want to command the Fire of Heaven?

It was this desire to wage spiritual warfare that motivated the disciples to want to command the Fire of Heaven to consume these Samaritans. The disciples thought they were there, facing the enemies of God; and as such, they wanted to wage Spiritual Warfare. In their ignorance, they had not understood that these poor Samaritans were just pagans who needed the message of salvation, and not enemies.

3.3- Why did they think of invoking the Fire of God?

The disciples thought of invoking the Fire of God against those they believed to be enemies because they knew that the Fire of God was part of the warfare weapons we have. Knowing that in any fight against the enemies of God we must use all our weapons, including the Fire of God, they were ready to use this dreadful weapon.

3.4- Why did Jesus, in this case, oppose the use of this weapon by the disciples?

In this specific case, Jesus had opposed the use of this weapon by the disciples because the target against which the disciples wanted to use this weapon was not the right target. The poor ignorant Samaritans against whom this weapon was to be used could be saved. They were not demons whose mission is to destroy us, and who cannot be saved.

4- What to Remember?

Beloved, it is therefore clear from this study that the disciples of Jesus knew very well that the Fire of God was a weapon for Spiritual Warfare. It is also clear that Jesus had not found it awkward that the disciples had thought of the Fire of God as a warfare instrument. Finally, it emerges that the reason Jesus rebuked the disciples was that the people whom the disciples wanted to strike with the Fire of God were not necessarily enemies of God.

Sorcerers tell us that we must not use Fire in Spiritual Warfare, as if we, Children of God, have invented the use of Fire. The Fire of God is indeed a weapon in the warfare, as I have just shown you through the passage of Luke that we have meditated. The disciples James and John knew this, and that is why they were ready to use it.

5- Has the Fire of God been used in the Bible?

The Lord used the Fire of God in His fight against His enemies in Sodom and Gomorrah, as you can read in Genesis 19:1-25.

Genesis 19:1-25 ¹Now the two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them, and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground. ²And he said, "Here now, my lords, please turn in to your servant's house and spend the night, and wash your feet; then you may rise early and go on your way." And they said, "No, but we will spend the night in the open square." ³But he insisted strongly; so they turned in to him and entered his house. Then he made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate. ⁴Now before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both old and young, all the people from every quarter, surrounded the house.

⁵And they called to Lot and said to him, "Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us that we may know them carnally." ⁶So Lot went out to them through the doorway, shut the door behind him, ⁷and said, "Please, my brethren, do not do so wickedly! ⁸"See now, I have two daughters who have not known a man; please, let me bring them out to you, and you may do to them as you wish; only do nothing to these men, since this is the reason they have come under the shadow of my roof." ⁹And they said, "Stand back!" Then they said, "This one came in to stay here, and he keeps acting as a judge; now we will deal worse with you than with them." So they pressed hard against the man Lot, and came near to break down the door. ¹⁰But the men reached out their hands and pulled Lot into the house with them, and shut the door.

¹¹And they struck the men who were at the doorway of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they became weary trying to find the door. ¹²Then the men said to Lot, "Have you anyone else here? Son-in-law, your sons, your daughters, and whomever you have in the city - take them out of this place! ¹³"For we will destroy this place, because the outcry against them has grown great before the face of the Lord, and the Lord has sent us to destroy it." ¹⁴So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who had married his daughters, and said, "Get up, get out of this place; for the Lord will destroy this city!" But to his sons-in-law he seemed to be joking. ¹⁵When the morning dawned, the angels urged Lot to hurry, saying, "Arise, take your wife and your two daughters who are here, lest you be consumed in the punishment of the city." ¹⁶And while he lingered, the men took hold of his hand, his wife's hand, and the hands of his two daughters, the Lord being merciful to him, and they brought him out and set him outside the city.

¹⁷So it came to pass, when they had brought them outside, that he said, "Escape for your life! Do not look behind you nor stay anywhere in the plain. Escape to the mountains, lest you be destroyed." ¹⁸Then Lot said to them, "Please, no, my lords! ¹⁹"Indeed now, your servant has found favour in your sight, and you have increased your mercy which you have shown me by saving my life; but I cannot escape to the mountains, lest some evil overtake me and I die. ²⁰"See now, this city is near enough to flee to, and it is a little one; please let me escape there (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live." ²¹And he said to him, "See, I have favoured you concerning this thing also, in that I will not overthrow this city for which you have spoken. ²²"Hurry, escape there. For I cannot do anything until you arrive there." Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar. ²³The sun had risen upon the earth when Lot entered Zoar. ²⁴Then the Lord rained brimstone and Fire on Sodom and Gomorrah, from the Lord out of the heavens. ²⁵So He overthrew those cities, all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground."

Elijah used the Fire of God in his fight against the enemies of God, as you can read in 2Kings 1:1-15.

2Kings 1:1-15 "... And he said, "It is Elijah the Tishbite." ⁹Then the king sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty men. So he went up to him; and there he was, sitting on the top of a hill. And he spoke to him: "Man of God, the king has said, 'Come down!'" ¹⁰So Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, "If I am a man of God, then let Fire come down from Heaven and consume you and your fifty men." And fire came down from Heaven and consumed him and his fifty. ¹¹Then he sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty men. And he answered and said to him: "Man of God, thus has the king said, 'Come down quickly!'" ¹²So Elijah answered and said to them, "If I am a man of God, let Fire come down from Heaven and consume you and your fifty men." And the Fire of God came down from Heaven and consumed him and his fifty.

¹³Again, he sent a third captain of fifty with his fifty men. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and pleaded with him, and said to him: "Man of God, please let my life and the life of these fifty servants of yours be precious in your sight. ¹⁴"Look, Fire has come down from Heaven and burned up the first two captains of fifties with their fifties. But let my life now be precious in your sight." ¹⁵And the angel of the Lord said to Elijah, "Go down with him; do not be afraid of him." So he arose and went down with him to the king."

6- Flesh and Blood

Here is another passage that agents of satan use to try to lead the Children of God astray from Spiritual Warfare. Ephesians 6:12 "For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places." The agents of Hell are forced to twist the word of God whenever they want to fight us. But the word of God always dumbfounds them, so that in order to use it, they are obliged to distort its meaning. Let us examine this passage together. The Lord tells us here that we do not wrestle against flesh and blood.

6.1- What is "Flesh and Blood"?

"Flesh and blood" represents normal people who have nothing to do with the world of darkness, like those Samaritans that the disciples wanted to consume by the Fire of God. "Flesh and blood" has nothing to do with the agents of satan whose mission is to fight God, and fight us. "Flesh and blood" has nothing to do with those demons who have sworn to destroy us.

6.2- Who are the principalities and the rulers of this world of darkness against whom we must wrestle?

The rulers, the authorities, the powers of this dark world and the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places against whom we must wrestle are all these demons, evil spirits and other agents of satan who fight us fiercely every day, and who have sworn to make us miss Heaven. Understand once more, beloved, that all those who quote all these verses to try to discourage you are demons. They know very well the effect that the Fire of God that you send, does on them and in their camp. It is in their despair that they try to twist the word of God, to stop the fight you are waging. Never fall into the trap of listening to them.

These sorcerers talk to you about "Flesh and blood". Ask them these simple questions: On whom did the Lord rain down the Fire of God in Sodom and Gomorrah? On whom did Elijah pour out the Fire of God in Samaria? Do not be surprised if they tell you that these cases were in the Old Testament. You already know that every time they get stuck, they try to make you believe that the Old Testament is no longer part of the Bible.

The people on whom the Lord had poured the Fire of God in Sodom and Gomorrah, and those on whom Elijah had poured the Fire of God in Samaria, are what can be called out of ignorance "Flesh and blood". Know that it is not because some agents of satan take human forms to better fight God and destroy us, that you must confuse them with "Flesh and blood".

Children of God, I believe that this teaching on the use of God's Fire in Spiritual Warfare is clear enough for each of you now, and that no agent of Hell will ever again be able to destabilize you in your momentum for the warfare, with their incantations, with the lies they fabricate in their world to discourage you. I give thanks to God!

7- Is the Fire of God a weapon for Warfare?

We have just demonstrated it. The Fire of God is indeed a weapon for Spiritual Warfare. Remember once and for all, beloved Soldiers of Jesus Christ, that the Fire of God is a weapon of warfare for us, a very effective weapon that you must use regularly to destroy the camp of satan. Never again allow yourself to be intimidated by these demons, so-called Christians or pastors, who tell you that the warfare you are waging is not biblical. It is in order to make you stop the fight, that they tell you that. The Fire of God that you send on them and in their camp consumes them very well, and they suffer seriously from it, even if they often pretend not to feel it. They often hide to cry. The Fire of God often leaves marks and plaques on their bodies, and they try hard to conceal them. I therefore encourage you to intensify the sending of the Fire of God on all agents of Hell, to consume them, and to destroy all their plans against us.

8- Did Jesus forbid the use of the Fire of God?

We have just studied it together. Jesus never forbade the use of the Fire of God in Spiritual Warfare. The reason Jesus rebuked His disciples who wanted to use this weapon was that the target against which this weapon was to be used was not the right one. The Fire of God is a weapon that must be used against demons and agents of satan whose mission is to destroy us, and not against the poor pagans who need Jesus. Some agents of Hell will not hesitate to tell you that demons too can be saved. Let this not surprise you. Did not some of their brothers tell us that Judas Iscariot had repented?

9- Conclusion

Beloved and dear brethren in Christ, this subject on the Fire of God is more an element of discernment for us than a teaching. In reality, no true child of God can have a problem with the use of the Fire of God as a weapon of Spiritual Warfare.

You will never see a true child of God love demons to the point of wanting to protect them from the Fire of God. You will never see a true child of God defend the cause of demons. You will never see a true child of God intercede with other children of God to stop sending the Fire of God into the camp of demons. You will never see a true child of God use cunning to prevent other children of God from striking demons with the fire of God. You will never see a true child of God intimidate other children of God through biblical verses whose meaning they distort, to stop the sending of the Fire of God into the camp of demons.

Remember very well that their statement that Jesus did not ask us to strike demons and other wicked spirits with the Fire of God is pure intimidation. Every true child of God knows that his worst enemies are satan, his demons, and all his agents. Every true child of God knows very well what he suffers every day from satan and his demons. For this reason, no true child of God can be indignant at the sending of the Fire of God into satan's camp. You will never see a true child of God defend demons and satan's agents.

In the same way that we, Children of God, pray and intercede for our brothers and sisters in Christ, in the same way satan's agents intercede for demons and other agents of satan, who are none other than their brothers and their fellow servants. If you know at least one reason that may cause a true child of God to have mercy on demons and to protect demons and satan's servants, share this with us.

Finally, remember, beloved, that the Fire of God is indeed part of our weapons in Spiritual Warfare. Also remember that all those who try to intimidate you so that you no longer send the Fire of God into the camp of satan, are demons. They are servants of satan who want to protect themselves, and protect their brothers and their fellow workers.

Grace to all who love our Lord Jesus Christ with an undying love!

Invitation

Dear brothers and sisters,

If you have run away from fake churches and would like to know what to do, here are the two options available to you:

1- See if around you there are some other children of God who fear God and desire to live according to the Sound Doctrine. If you find any, feel free to join them.

2- If you do not find one and wish to join us, our doors are open to you. The only thing we will ask you to do is to first read all the Teachings that the Lord has given us, and which are on our website www.mcreveil.org, to reassure yourself that they are in conformity with the Bible. If you find them in accordance with the Bible, and are ready to submit to Jesus Christ, and live by the demands of His word, we will gladly welcome you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you!
